

CHAS. J. GOODFELLOW OBSERVES BIRTHDAY

Manager of Luna Park Congratulated on Reaching Forty-first Milestone.

Charles J. Goodfellow, the genial manager of Luna Park, celebrated his forty-first birthday yesterday. Congratulations poured in on him from his friends in Washington and other cities of the East, where he has been identified with parks and theaters.

Mr. Goodfellow is particularly fond of children and is never happier than when he has a crowd of children about him. Ever since the park opened he has been booking excursions of children and giving the little ones access to all the amusements on the grounds.

Before coming to Washington Mr. Goodfellow was a well known newspaper man. He was compelled to give up this profession through the loss of his sight, but since that time he has been the successful manager of many of the largest parks in the East. He is a native of Pennsylvania, and is widely known throughout the amusement world.

BANDITS GET $29,000 IN STAGE HOLD-UP

Nevada Highwaymen Escape With Railroad Payroll—Posses in Hot Pursuit.

RENO, Nev., July 22.—The details of the hold-up of the likely and Alturas stage, near Likely, about midnight Monday night, have just been received here. Two masked highwaymen secured the express strong box, which contained about $29,000 for payrolls of construction crews of the Nevada-California-Oregon railroad, besides money for the monthly payrolls on several of the largest stock farms in Modoc county.

The stage left Likely at midnight, and the express agent accompanied the driver, on account of the great amount of money in the box. The two masked men were heavily armed, and stepped from the stage brush into the road about five miles from Likely.

They did not molest the passengers, but demanded the agent to throw out the box, evidently knowing that it was loaded with valuables. After the hold-up they mounted their horses and carried the box with them for about a mile before opening it.

Posses from Alturas are on the trail of the bandits. They have tracked them over the Nevada State line and think they will attempt to make their escape on the Southern Pacific East.

SLAIN CHINAMAN ENDOWS CHURCH

PHILADELPHIA, July 22.—Through the bequest of Lee Chit, who was murdered in the Chinese quarter here last Tuesday by George Lee, the first regular church building to be established by Chinese in this country will be erected in this city. At the funeral of the murdered man today the Rev. Dr. Charles Seasholes eulogized Chit, saying:

"Chit was one of the most devoted Christians among our Chinese population."

"I am able to announce that he has left in his will a large sum of money for the purpose of erecting a Chinese Baptist church in this city."

"This church will be the first regular church building to be erected by Chinese in the United States, and, as such, will mark an epoch in the development of the Chinamen in America. When the Chinese have become Christianized, then there will no longer be any 'yellow peril' for the white man to fear."

GEESSE ARRESTED FOR RUNNING FREE

POTTSTOWN, Pa., July 22.—Burgess Hiram Collier gave his Republican administration its master stroke when, to show the populace that it could not set at defiance his recent edict that no geese or ducks would be permitted to roam the streets, he had 11 of the former arrested.

The specific charge was that the geese, with others not yet pulled in, "had ruined 300 head of cabbage in Chester Kepner's truck patch."

As the station house was too small to accommodate so many prisoners at one time, they were impounded in Harry Livengood's yard until their owner paid $1.50 fine.

A LONG WAIT.

"Wait for Our Big Sunday Dinner—15 Cents," said the flaring sign in front of a cheap Chicago restaurant. The Philadelphia who was flat broke could not help staring at it and slightly cursing his luck.

"Just my misfortune to land in Chicago with exactly the price of one of those dinners in my pocket—four days ahead of the schedule," muttered the hungry man as he bolted into the saloon next door, spent his 15 cents for three beers and forced a mortgage on the free lunch counter.—Exchange.

SULTAN DESIGNATES HEIR TO HIS THRONE

Abdul Hamid Disregards Turkish Precedent and Names Son as Successor.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 22.—Convinced by his constantly failing health that he has not long to live, Abdul Hamid, Sultan of Turkey, has made known to a few of his intimate advisers that he has chosen his third son, Mehmed Burhan-Eddin, as his successor.

Whether the Sultan's selection of the heir to the throne will be allowed to go unquestioned is a matter of grave doubt. He disregards the Turkish precedent of seniority among the male descendants of the imperial harem of Ottoman, the empire's founder, by choosing a successor to the throne.

Three of the Sultan's brothers, Mehmed Reshad, Mehmed Selim, and Abdul Kadir, come before the Sultan's favorite son, who is but twenty-one years old.

A short time after adjournment the secretary of the pastors' meeting attempted to present the paper. The daughters refused to receive it, declaring the matter was closed.

CLERGYMEN PROTEST AT CHARITY RACES

SUFFOLK, Va., July 22.—Despite the protest of clergymen of all denominations at this place, the King's Daughters will give a series of horse races tomorrow afternoon for charity. The protest was written on Saturday, but was late in being delivered.

The cleric under whose auspices the races will be held met this morning and waited a half-hour for the ministers to appear. None came, and the daughters voted to carry out the program.

SAVED BY BEARD FROM EXPLOSION

CHESTER, Pa., July 22.—The explosion of gasoline, which leaked from a bad tank in the hull of the tugboat launch Carrie S., owned by Joseph Solomon, a cigar manufacturer, ended disastrously for the four occupants of the boat, who were taken to the Chester Hospital.

The explosion was caused by the lighting of a match on the side of the gasoline-soaked boat.

That Solomon was not fatally injured was due to his luxurious beard, which was burned off before the flaming flames reached his face. He jumped into the water, however, and supplemented the beard's fine service.

COUNT ARRESTED FOR HOTEL BILL

Finds It Hard to Pay $57, After Spending $11,000.

NEW YORK, July 22.—Count Jose da Pereira Mourao, a Portuguese nobleman, who arrived in this country three months ago, and during that time is said to have fallen in love with a pretty American girl and spent $11,000 at fashionable hotels and New York roof gardens, was arrested at Montclair, N. J., yesterday for non-payment of a bill of $57 at the Hotel Montclair.

The count was sipping his coffee when served with the warrant. He asked the police chief to accompany him to Birkendone, the home of Charles R. Learycraft, where he had been a guest during his stay in Montclair. Mr. Learycraft refused to advance the money necessary to pay the bill.

Taken To Station. The chief then took his prisoner to the Montclair police station, where he was arraigned before Recorder Keot, smoking a cigarette and twirling a cane meanwhile. He admitted owing the bill, and then pulled out a wallet containing about $100. Manager Paul Wilcox, who appeared for the hotel company, accepted the offer and the count and the charge was withdrawn.

The arrest sadly disarranged Count Mourao's plans, however. He had engaged passage on the Kaiser Wilhelm II, and at the time he was being arraigned before the recorder, the big ship was leaving the pier in Hoboken. The count later telephoned to the shipping company, and made arrangements for departing for Cherbourg on a ship that will sail on Thursday.

He Fell In Love. People wondered why the count, who is of a flashy type, saw fit to stay in quiet Montclair, and an explanation was sought in his visits to the Learycraft home. It was said he had fallen in love with Mr. Learycraft's daughter, but Mr. and Mrs. Learycraft both denied yesterday that there was anything serious between the young people.

The count registered from Paris, Brazil, but Mr. Learycraft says his mother and father live in Lisbon. The family's wealth was made in the rubber business in Brazil. When he pulled the roll out of his pocket at the police court yesterday he was asked why he had not used the money for this purpose before it was necessary to arrest him.

The count, who is a very handsome young man, replied with a smile, "Oh, that was for spending money on the trip across to Cherbourg."

SHIP 60 YEARS IN ICE. Reports from Captain Jarvis, of the royal mounted police of the Canadian Northwest, state that Explorer McClure's famous ship Investigator, once British man-of-war, which was caught in the ice sixty years ago and has been fast there ever since, last summer was so free that vessels could approach close. The mild Arctic winter of 1907-8 may mean that ice on the Arctic coast will not be so heavy this summer as to prevent steam whalers from reaching the Investigator.

McClure had to abandon the ship because the men had become afflicted with scurvy. They left all supplies on board, and no one, as far as is known, has ever visited the ship since.

DOVES LIKE PEOPLE IN THEIR MATING

Unfaithfulness and Jealousy Enter Into Their Marital State.

CHICAGO, July 22.—Poets and sentimentalists received an awful jolt at the hands of Prof. Wallace Craig, of the University of Chicago, an expert, who has devoted years to a close study of doves and pigeons. In effect, he says all this sentiment about doves being gentle, devoted, and the personification of perfect love, is tommy rot. Prof. Craig won the degree of P. H. D. last month, because of his investigations into bird language and habits. He will be a member of the University of Maine faculty next year, and he knows what he is talking about.

Doves Never Coy. Briefly, Prof. Craig says doves are never coy. They lack that instinct entirely. Lady doves and pigeons often make model wives and mothers, but they frequently desert their mates, for better looking gentlemen doves. The females also grow peevish if things do not go right, and act very much like human shrews. The professor says:

"In pigeons, among which there is always a ceremony before pairing, the female sometimes is more anxious to mate than is the male, and she leads the male on by various wiles. So long as the two birds remain united and faithful they must be controlled by bonds which cause them to regard with indifference the behavior of their neighbors. One such bond is daily and almost hourly communication of affection by means of voice, gesture and mutual caresses."

She Whips Tyrant. Pigeon fights, Prof. Craig says, are usually more talk than anything else. He tells of putting into a cage a cruel tyrant of a male, whose wife had been taken from him because of his cruelty. In the same cage was a timid little lady dove, who immediately sallied into the tyrant and whipped him into servile submission. The female dove submits to her mate, notwithstanding his cruelty, but she will fight out to males with ferocity.

The professor goes into the set ceremonies observed by doves and pigeons for various occasions and this makes a contribution of great value to science. He also tells how the pair, after agreeing to mate, set out to elect their dominion. The male, who is usually larger, has her way, finding fault with the places chosen by the male and cozening him into accepting her choice.

TEAR DOWN FLAG; COUPLE ARRESTED

WEST CHESTER, Pa., July 22.—Upon complaint of Gilbert Winfield Stubblebine, living in a prominent residential section, warrants were issued for the arrest of Charles R. J. Hayes and his wife, neighbors charging them with having torn down the American flag on the Stubblebine porch on or about July 5.

The flag had been left out to dry after the storm on Independence Day. The defendants were held in their own recognizance for a hearing.

The suit is prompted by recent actions of veterans of McCall Post, who adopted resolutions condemning the alleged "desecration of the flag."

STRICTLY FRESH EGGS.

There are summer resorts, remote from any agricultural communities, where fresh farm products are even harder to obtain than in the city. It was at such a place that the new boarder, who had eaten four or five breakfasts there, began to wonder why the eggs were invariably served fried.

"See here," he inquired one morning of the genial colored man who waited upon him, "why do you always fry eggs here? I don't you ever boil them."

"Oh-oh, yes, sah!" responded the waiter, pleasantly. "Of co'se, yo' kin have 'em boiled, if yo' wants 'em. But yo' know, sah, yo' takes de risk!"—Exchange.

EXCHANGE FOR FOOD IS MORTAL WOUND

One Dead, Two Dying, as Result of Hobo Mix-up Near Johnstown, Pa.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., July 22.—One dead and two dying is the result of the viciousness of two tramps last night at Nanty Glo, twenty-five miles north of this place, in the Black Lick country. One of the hoboes shot twenty-one-year-old Bert Bland, son of Constable Bland. The tramps were later found, one of them shot in the heart and the other unconscious with a bullet wound over the heart.

The first man was Frank Potrocco, aged thirty, a woodcutter. Before he died, he said his companion, a cripple named Gibson, did the shooting. Potrocco died before he could tell the cause of the tragedy.

The tramps were waiting along the railroad track when they were met by Bland, a woodcutter. They were found among the neighbors and begging food for them. When the young man returned the tramps were sitting near the track, and as he handed them the food one of them shot him in the stomach. He is in a dying condition this morning.

The tramps were followed along the railroad tracks by a posse to the Webster, Pa., station, where they were found stretched on the ground. It is thought that the tramp who shot Bland was accused of the other, and that in the quarrel that ensued one of the two shot his companion and then turned the revolver on himself.

BALFOUR'S NEPHEW MADE WATCHMAN

WAUKEGAN, Ill., July 22.—Henry Balfour, nephew of Arthur Balfour, former premier of England, has obtained a job as night watchman at the naval training station just established here.

Balfour has lived in the West most of his life. His father, who had come from England in early youth, enlisted in the Forty-fifth Illinois Volunteers at the outbreak of the civil war.

He died ten years later of a wound received in action.

HAVE YOU MALARIA?

THREE MEN KILLED BY POWDER BLAST

Eight Seriously Injured Near Hagerstown—Say Iron Bar Was Used.

HAGERSTOWN, Md., July 22.—Three men were instantly killed and eight others so seriously injured that several of them will die by an explosion yesterday on the Cumberland Valley railroad, near Scotland Station.

The dead are: Michael Malloy, powder man; Edward Butler, colored, assistant; and John Loudon, colored, assistant.

The injured are: Daniel Earhart, left leg broken and head cut; F. Dolorman, right leg broken and hurt about shoulders and head; C. H. Johnson, leg broken and injured about the head; H. L. Carbaugh, back and head severely injured; William Myers, right foot crushed; C. C. Boyne, left leg broken and otherwise injured; Joseph Sline, badly bruised about the head and body; and S. O. Lightfoot, left hand crushed.

Improvements are being made at this place, and a number of men are employed in the work. The workmen were preparing a blast, and many assert that Powderman Malloy used an iron bar in packing the powder, instead of the customary wooden hammer. Malloy was thirty-five years old, and was an unusually careful workman.

ANTY DRUDGE ADVISES THE FIREMAN.

Fireman—"Morning, Anty Drudge! You had better go over to Mrs. Slims; she's terribly burned."

Anty Drudge—"How did it happen?"

Fireman—"Over-heated stove. Trying to get the fire hot enough to boil her clothes. My wife was badly burned last week doing the same thing."

Anty Drudge—"Yes, I'll go right over. But look here, young man! Get your wife Fels-Naptha. Then she won't have to boil the clothes. Just use lukewarm or cool water; let the clothes soak for half an hour; that's all there is to it."

Friendship begins with acquaintance. All Fels-Naptha wants is an introduction and it will become your boon companion in laundry and kitchen.

We are advertising to get Fels-Naptha that introduction into new homes. Then we depend on the soap itself to keep it there.

If Fels-Naptha wouldn't do what we claim; if it wouldn't wash clothes quicker and better in cool or lukewarm water without hard labor or boiling; if it wouldn't save time, work, fuel and health—would over a million women use it every washday?

Not much.

But Fels-Naptha will do these things and more; has done them and is doing them for more and more progressive women every year.

Follow the easy directions on the back of the red and green wrapper.
